

HR Hotline

Providing Clients Access to Professional Consultations and Recommendations

As an insurance expert, you might not necessarily be an HR expert. Yet, the employers you serve might lack sufficient HR resources. And they might turn to you for guidance on specific workplace questions.

HR Hotline can help. This service from Zywave offers access to a team of HR professionals in a convenient hotline format. When your clients share their questions with HR Hotline, they can receive personalized recommendations and consultation from HR professionals. And you'll be able to save time and reduce E&O exposure.

The On-Demand Resource for Your Clients' HR Questions

Extending Your Clients' HR Department

Clients can call, email, or submit online requests to share their HR questions. No matter the submission method, clients will receive prompt responses from expert professionals.

Trusted HR Guidance on a Variety of Topics

HR Hotline provides your clients access to trustworthy guidance from seasoned HR professionals. Experts have a range of certifications, and they average more than 15 years of experience.

A One-Stop Resource to Save Yourself Time

Your clients will be referred to HR resources for benefits, federal compliance, employment law, and more. Content can be delivered right away, allowing your clients to implement solutions quickly.
